COMPONENT 1 - IMPROVE KNOWLEDGE OF LEGAL REMEDIES

Result 1.1: Partner CSOs, Professional Organizations, and Government Partners Launch Strategic Communication Campaign That Effectively Delivers Priority Access to Justice Messages to Targeted Vulnerable Populations

The Access to Justice Program and IREX completed the second course in the series of trainings for NGOs and government employees in the Kurdish Region. The two day program, “Right to Information” was conducted on April 11th and 12th at the Van Royal Hotel in Erbil. The 15 participants were from the Kurdish Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs (KMOLSA), The Kurdistan Bar Association (KBA), the Women Empowerment Organization, the Kurdish Human Rights Watch, and Aswat Al Iraq. The training program covered the ways, the techniques and the importance of presenting the right information in the best way to benefit target groups of a media campaign.

Result 1.4: Effective Monitoring and Evaluation of Implementing Partner Public Awareness Campaigns

The component team completed site visits to two grantees—Fatema House of Charity for Women and Al-Rahma Humanitarian Organization, located in the critical area of Sadr City in Baghdad. The primary objective of the visit was to verify that the grantees’ activities have made some impact on the target beneficiaries and that they are eligible to apply for second grants. The team had the opportunity to interact directly with a large number of beneficiaries at the legal clinic of Fatema House to gather firsthand knowledge of their experience with the services provided by the grantee. The beneficiaries expressed that their lives had undergone a change when they learned during awareness-raising workshops that they could access a number of benefits from the government as widows and divorced women. The team followed up with Fatema House to discuss a second grant which will be focused on awareness raising and expanding the scope of the grant to violence against women as this is rampant in the Sadr City area.

The team conducted a site visit to the Women Empowerment Organization to be briefed on the status of their awareness raising workshops which are expected to be completed by the end of May 2012.

COMPONENT 2 - IMPROVE LEGAL EDUCATION AND SERVICES

Result 2.1: Support Iraqi NGOs Working in Priority Access to Justice Areas to Improve their Administrative and Substantive Capacity to Support Vulnerable Populations

A2J completed a site visit to Women for Justice (WFJ) in Karbala. The team provided the organization with technical assistance on reporting and managing information. The A2J team discussed the progress report, database, filing system and classification of the legal services according to the Program classification. To date, WFJ has provided legal services to 161 beneficiaries, 94 consultations and 67 legal representation out of which 11 cases completed.

Success Story

Hanan, a desperate widow with one 7-year old child, came to the Al-Rahma Legal Assistance Center seeking relief. Her husband was recently killed in an explosion in Baghdad and Hanan has no source of income to provide for her child with multiple needs.

The Al-Rahma Legal Clinic assisted Hanan in finding a solution for paying her rent so that she could remain in her house. Through a network of private donors, the organization was able to find benefactors that took care of the rent for the mother and child for the next three months to provide immediate relief. Next, Al-Rahma started the process for applying for social security benefits for Hanan and her daughter with the Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs.

Soon Hanan and her daughter will be able to live again with their basic needs taken care of, able to access benefits that are rightfully theirs through the assistance of Fatema House lawyers.

2.2: Work with Iraqi legal professional associations (primarily the Iraqi Bar Association and Jurist Union and their subsidiaries) to increase administrative and substantive capacity for empowering lawyers and other legal professionals to assist vulnerable or disadvantaged populations

Result 2.4: Support Development of Programs and Modernization of Academic and Practical Curriculum Related to Extending Access to Justice to Vulnerable Populations at Law Schools in Iraqi Universities in Key Locations throughout Iraq

A2J completed all preparations for the Curriculum Development Conference for next month in Erbil. Invitations were sent to 38 law schools, as well as to the Ministry of Higher Education in Baghdad and the KRG, Higher Judicial Council, the Iraqi Bar Association and the Kurdistan Bar Association.

A2J completed a site visit to the Baghdad Law School legal clinic. The legal clinic provides legal services to vulnerable populations and practical training for students on how to provide legal services. This week and the previous week, 445 fourth year students enrolled in a legal clinic course focusing on the Law on Lawyers and the concept of volunteerism—delivering pro bono legal services. Forty-nine are students taking lawyers consultations on two topics “marriage registration and divorce cases.” During this week, the clinic provided legal consultations for six vulnerable persons in areas including real state ownership rights, divorce, and obtaining IDs.

COMPONENT 3 – ADVOCACY AND IMPROVED GOVERNMENT SERVICES

Result 3.1: Support Partners in Reviewing Processes and Procedures for Reform of Policies, Regulations, and Legislation as they Relate to Vulnerable Populations

Having an Effect on Vulnerable People

The Access to Justice Program received an official letter from COMSEC regarding a response from MoLSA concerning the recommendations that the Program made through its Disabilities Roundtable back in December of last year. Regarding two recommendations, 1) raise awareness about the disabled and 2) legislate a disabilities law, the letter supported the adoption of these two actions in an official manner and gave credit to the Access to Justice Program for its role in supporting these initiatives.

A2J met formally for the first time with Dr. Saleem Abdullah Al-Jbouri, the President of the Human Rights Committee in Parliament to discuss the types of work that the program was conducting and how to coordinate directly between program-supported NGOs and the relevant Parliamentary Committees toward passage of laws that support vulnerable groups. With the termination of the Legislative Strengthening Program, Dr. Saleem Abdullah Al-Jbouri appeared interested in new partners from USAID and new ways through which USAID could support Parliament initiatives, particularly given the progress that Access to Justice has made with regard to other legal reform efforts including the funding of two large Law on Lawyers conferences for the Iraqi Bar Association and the substantive Program work in partnership with its grantees for disabilities law and identity with COMSEC. At the request of Dr. Saleem Abdullah Al-Jbouri, A2J provided a concept paper explaining the work of the program and in which areas the Human Rights Committee and Access to Justice could collaborate.

Access to Justice and the Kurdistan Human Rights Watch (KHRW) planned and prepared for the roundtable on residency issues scheduled for April 18th. KHRW, which is a program strategic partner, is playing a lead role in the organization of this event and has produced the agenda, press release, banner, and invitation letters which were sent out.

GRANTS ADMINISTRATION

The candidate for the position of Grants Manager has been interviewed and finalized. The candidate will be put forth to USAID shortly.

The Grants team prepared grant agreements for recently approved Grant RFAs.

OPERATIONS

A2J is following up with the requirements related to company registration including the appointment of a statutory lawyer, statutory accountant, and opening of a local bank account among others. The team is also finalizing the recruitment for Senior Program Assistant and Media Specialist. Employment contracts have also been drafted for review by Home Office prior to signing by the staff members who have been with the program for quite some time. Proposals from prospective vendors for the first phase of the awareness campaign are currently being evaluated while the second phase is still published waiting receipt of offers. The closing date for submission is on April 26.
